THE 3RD LAW OF MOTION

When one object pushes on another,
the other object pushes back with the same for...
but in the op...

They might not move the same if one has more mass or more friction than the other!